5. Spotlight on Sheridan College in Johnson County

Dr. Tribley noted the strength of the partnership with JCSD #1. He highlighted several key connections with Johnson County such as dual and concurrent enrollment, presence at basketball games, and the SC performing arts series hosted by the Johnson County Library. He discussed the new Commercial Motor Vehicle (CMV) program, which addresses needs in both Sheridan and Johnson Counties.

Advisory Board Chair Kremers echoed the success of the partnership and celebrated students' ability to complete a degree within the walls of SCJC. She noted the success of the community interest classes at SCJC. She and Ms. Dahlberg commented on the growth and importance of the dual and concurrent enrollment program for students and their families.

VP Smith thanked the teachers for their work, discussed the SCJC upgraded technology and course offerings, and summarized enrollments from Buffalo, Kaycee and New West High Schools.

Mr. Aguirre discussed scholarships awarded to SCJC students and the opportunities provided through scholarship fundraisers such as the Golf for Knowledge Tournament.

Mr. Auzqui noted the strength of the partnership and the support provided by the new BOCHES and commended the development of the new CMV program.

Ms. Schiffer graduated from SCJC in 2016 and now runs two businesses. She reported being a product of SCJC and was able to stay in Buffalo for her education.

Mr. Novotny commented on the need to continue efforts in facility improvement for future growth in career and technical education. Mr. Auzqui and Chair Wendtland commended the Pathways initiative in its efforts to collaborate and benefit local students and communities. The Board offered to be available to discuss ideas anytime.

6. President's Report – Dr. Walt Tribley

Dr. Tribley spoke about the loss of a dear friend, Bill Rohrbaugh and his commitment to serving on the Sheridan College Foundation Board of Directors.

- District Division Update – GCCD is working toward accreditation. They are still part of NWCCD service district until accredited.
- Advanced Manufacturing and Applied Sciences Update – The construction will be completed in June, and the equipment will be installed in the summer. The programs offered in the fall will be carpentry, electrical, HVAC, and plumbing in the spring.
- Strategic Planning – Dr. Tribley summarized the strategic planning process, involvement of staff and students, and the next step which relates to community involvement. The information provided at this meeting will inform the plan.
- HLC Site Visit for Substantive Change Request: Sheridan College BAS Degree – The HLC review team will be in Sheridan June 10- 11, 2024. The review will be conducted through a series of meetings with key stakeholders, educators, administrators, and others.
- General Updates – The Wyoming Innovation Partnership (WIP) is in its third phase of funding, part of which, SC received. Dr. Tribley recognized the work of the facilities department for their efforts on the recent commencement ceremony and conferences hosted by SC in the summer.
