				Unlock the power of artificial intelligence with our course, "AI and You: Practical Applications for Business and Personal Use." This beginner-friendly introduction explores how AI can enhance decision-making, automate tasks, and improve efficiency in both professional and personal contexts. You'll dive into ethical considerations and AI limitations while learning to interact with tools like chatbots and smart assistants. With hands-on activities, you'll master how to "prompt" AI for optimal results-no programming skills required! Perfect for business professionals and non-technical audiences looking to harness AI's potential in everyday life. This class will begin on Thursday, March 13th. This course is offered online synchronously at the listed time.
